

Whittington

Press Release

Whittington Appoints Charlie Burgess to Support Asia Expansion

16 March 2009: Whittington Group, the international insurance investor and services provider, has appointed Charlie Burgess as a member of the Senior Executive Team to support the Group's expansion in Asia.

Mr Burgess, who will report to Tony Hobrow, Whittington Group Chief Executive Officer, will be based in Whittington's Singapore office from mid-May. He joins from Aon Benfield Securities where he was a leading member of the legacy Benfield Advisory team and a Director of Benfield Advisory Limited, with responsibility for advising on a range of corporate finance transactions across multiple jurisdictions over the last seven years. Prior to moving to Aon Benfield, Mr Burgess worked for Grant Thornton Capital Markets in London.

Tony Hobrow said: "This is the latest in a number of senior management appointments as we continue our expansion across Asia. Charlie has extensive experience of the insurance market and I look forward to working closely with him as we seek new opportunities and develop current business opportunities in the region."