Whittington Group Appoints Agency Operations Director

London, 14 February 2008 – Whittington Group, the international insurance investment and services business, has appointed Luke Barnett as Agency Operations Director of Whittington's Lloyd's managing agency.

Mr Barnett joins from Lloyd's where he was a franchise executive within the performance underwriting team. Previously he was employed by QBE Europe as a business risk manager.

In his new role Mr Barnett will utilise his 20 years of insurance experience to assume responsibility for compliance and risk for the Syndicates currently managed by Whittington's Lloyd's managing agency. His particular focus will be on managing regulatory matters for both the Barbican Syndicate 1955 and Arrow Syndicate 1910.

Stephen Cane, Whittington's Chief Executive Europe said: Having joined us from the Lloyd's franchise team, Luke has the ideal blend of experience to support our Syndicates. He is an excellent addition to our managing agency team and we wish him well in his new role.
