Press Release

Whittington strengthens management team in Asia in preparation for increased activity in the region.

London 7 December 2009: Whittington Group, the international insurance investor and services provider, has strengthened its senior management team in Asia with the appointment of James Kim as Whittington Asia Pacific Country Manager in Hong Kong.

The appointment further boosts Whittington's presence in Asia as the group continues its expansion across the region.

James Kim has previously held a series of senior management positions with leading insurers in the Asia Pacific region including most recently as Chief Operating Officer for ACE Insurance in Thailand.

James is tasked with developing Whittington's operations in Hong Kong and across North East Asia and will lead various projects the group intends to launch in the region.

Whittington Group Chief Executive Officer Anthony Hobrow said: "We are delighted to have attracted James Kim to Whittington as he is a highly experienced and well-regarded manager with experience in several markets in our region. We believe that Whittington will be making significant strides in Asia next year and James's appointment will be of great benefit to our clients and to the Whittington Group as a whole."
